ACCEPTABLE INTERNET USE POLICY

Students in Mother Seton School utilize technology to enhance their learning. It is such an important part of the curriculum, but certain regulations must be met in order for it to be effective. Prior to being allowed access to the Internet at school, students and their parents must sign the consent form at the bottom of this paper. Rules for use of the Internet are below. If a student violates any of these rules, his/her use shall be terminated and future access may be denied. Disciplinary action may also result.

1. Use of the school's Internet is a privilege, not a right, and can only be used under adult supervision.
2. The Internet shall only be used for educational purposes. Students may not visit any web pages without teacher consent.
3. Students shall not load personal software or download programs from the Internet without permission of the teacher.
4. Although Mother Seton School uses a filter to block access to inappropriate Internet sites, inappropriate matter may still appear. If this occurs, it is the responsibility of the student to report it to the teacher.
5. Students may not access, display, or print any defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, obscene, profane, threatening, racially offensive, or illegal material. Appropriate language must be used at all times.
6. Copyright laws must be followed. All materials from the Internet, including graphics, must be properly cited.
7. Students shall not provide their own or other's personal information such as home addresses, phone numbers, or last name when using the Internet.
